

Background information for audit:

The Asia Indigenous Peoples Pact (AIPP) is a regional organization founded in 1988 by indigenous peoples' movements. AIPP is committed to the cause of promoting and defending indigenous peoples' rights and human rights and articulating issues of relevance to indigenous peoples. At present, AIPP has 48 members from 14 countries in Asia. The governance structure of AIPP regards the General Assembly (GA) as the highest decision-making body that meets every four years, and the Executive Council as the interim decision-making body in-between the General Assembly.

There are six program components and multiple projects, donors and partners under each component.

In the year 2019, there are more than 1300 transactions amounting to around 60 to 70 million Baht. In relation to individual projects the amount may vary from 50,000 USD to 1 million USD.
