

Background information for audit:

The Asia Indigenous Peoples Pact (AIPP) is a regional organization founded in 1992 by Indigenous Peoples' movements, which is committed to the cause of promoting and defending Indigenous Peoples' rights and human rights and articulating issues of relevance to Indigenous Peoples. At present, AIPP has 46 members from 14 countries in Asia. The governance structure of AIPP regards the General Assembly (GA) as the highest decision-making body that meets every four years, and the Executive Council as the interim decision-making body in-between the General Assembly.

There are six program components and multiple projects, donors, and partners under each component.

In the year 2020, there were more than 1300 transactions amounting to around 75 million Baht. In relation to individual projects the amount may vary from 50,000 USD to 1 million USD.

Programme	Donors for 2021
Organizational Strengthening	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Swedish International Development Cooperation Agency (SIDA) represented by the Embassy of Sweden in Bangkok • International Workgroup for Indigenous Affairs (IWGIA)
Human Rights	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Oxfam Australia • International Workgroup for Indigenous Affairs (IWGIA) • Oxfam America • International Land Coalition (ILC) united for land rights • Tamalpais Trust Fund • European Union (EU) • CISU
Indigenous Women	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Oxfam Australia • HIOVs • International Workgroup for Indigenous Affairs (IWGIA) • IWRAW • FIMI
Regional Capacity Building	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Christensen Fund (TCF) • The German Catholic Bishops' Organisation for Development Cooperation, regd.(MISEREOR) • UNESCO • UNDP
Environment	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Swedish Society for Nature Conservation (SSNC) • Norwegian Agency for Development Cooperation, (Norad) • UNOPS
Communication Development	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Open Society Foundation (OSF)